The bare foot boy.

1. Blessings on the little man,
Bare foot boy with cheeks of tan!
With thy turned-up Pantaloon,
And thy merry whistled tune.

With thy turned up pantaloon.
and thy merry whistled tunes.
Blessings on the little man.
Blessings on thee,
Blessings on thee, little man.

Oh! boys carry me long.
1. Oh! carry me long, Dar's no more trouble
for me;

I'd going to roam in a happy home
Where all de niggas am free,
I've worked long in de fields;
I've handled many a hol; I'll turn my eye,
Before I die, and see de sugarcane grow.

Chorus.

Oh! boys, carry me long; carry me till I die;
Carry me down to the buryin' groun'; massa,
don't you cry.

2. All over de land, I've wandered many a day,
To blow de horn and mind de corn and keep de Possum-away.

no use for me now.

So darkeys, bury me low;
my horn is dry, and I must lie,
where de Possum neber cango.

Chorus.

As you go through life.

1. Don't look for flaws as you go thru life;
and even when you find them,
It is wise and kind to be somewhat blind,
And look for the virtues behind them;
For the cloudiest night has a tint of light,
Somewhere in the shadows hiding;
It is better by far to hunt for a star,
Than the spot on the sun abiding.

2. The current of life runs ever away
To the bosom of God's great ocean;
Don't set your face against the river's course,
And think to alter its motion;
Don't waste a curse on the universe
Remember it lived before you,
Don't butt at the storm with your puny arms
But bend and let it go over you.

My grandfather's garret.

1. The kitchen I love with devotion,
Tis there cakes and puddings are made;
I love the old orchard and store-house,
But the garret throws all in the shade.

Chorus.

||| my grandfather's garret. |||
throws everything else in the shade.

2. A spinning wheel stands in the corner,
an old fashion churn and a reel,
Two muskets that Patriots carried,
and a sword with a rusty brown steel.

3. Deep under the eaves have the swallows their nest built for many a year,
tis here they can rest unmolested,
and know not a care nor a fear.

4. From frames old and crumbling strange portraits arrest us as if they would tell.
